Special Event Notice

Documentary: Most Likely to Succeed Screening and Panel Discussion

Are conventional education methods still working in today's innovative world? As part of its Education Connections series, Bellevue Schools Foundation is proud to partner with Big Picture Bellevue and the PTSA Council to present Most Likely to Succeed.

This thought provoking documentary explores compelling new approaches that aim to revolutionize education as we know it. Panel discussion follows the screening.

Let's ignite the conversation: Join us to learn from Panelists and from the Bellevue Big Picture Middle and High Schools on how you can activate change now.

Date: January 10, 2017

Time: Doors open at 6, movie starts at 6:30 with a panel following at 8:00 pm.

Seating is limited and registration is required. Register now at Event Brite.
